

New Mexico Office of the Attorney General

Assistant Attorney General I

Advocacy and Intervention Division

Santa Fe - Full time

Job Reference #00001030

The Advocacy and Intervention Division of the New Mexico Office of the Attorney General, an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) employer, is seeking applicants for an Assistant Attorney General I position located in Santa Fe, NM.

The position will focus on handling cases under the Governmental Conduct Act and the Unfair Trade Practices Act. This position will also assist consumer and victim advocates with complex cases. Interested candidates should have litigation experience in both state and federal courts. The position will require superior research and drafting skills, and be comfortable in a court setting and have the ability to build consensus and work with many disparate interests. The ideal candidate will be able to work independently and as part of a team and should have excellent communication skills. A candidate with civil and criminal law experience is preferred. Candidates must hold an active license in good standing to practice in New Mexico, or be eligible to seek a public employee limited license for government service under Rule 15-301.1 of the New Mexico Rules Governing Admission to the Bar.

Salary is commensurate with experience. Resume, writing sample and three professional references must be received by the Office of the Attorney General. Recruitment for this position will remain open until the position is filled. Applicants selected for an interview must notify the Attorney General's Office of the need for a reasonable accommodation due to a Disability.

To apply please visit <https://www.nmag.gov/job-openings.aspx>